

RAJA MUMTAZ GOLD MEDAL FOR YEAR 2016

The recipient of Ophthalmological Society of Pakistan Raja Mumtaz Gold Medal for year 2016 is a distinguished Pakistani Ophthalmologist, who graduated from Quaid-e-Azam University Islamabad in 1983, MCPS in 1989 and FCPS in 1991 from College of Physician & Surgeons Pakistan. He also obtained Fellowship form Royal College of Physician & Surgeons of Edinburgh in 1993. Currently getting MCPS HPE (Medial Education).

The recipient is the Principal of Fatima Jinnah Medical Health College of Medicine and Associate Dean Schools of Health Sciences. At the same time he is consultant Ophthalmologist and head of the Department of Ophthalmology at Fatima Memorial Health College of Medicine.

He is supervisor and examiner for university of Health Sciences Lahore and College of Physician & Surgeons Pakistan. He also remained supervisor and Examiner for Armed Forces Post Graduate medical Institute.

He is one of the Editor of PJO (Pakistan Journal of Ophthalmology) and active member of the executive Council of OSP Lahore branch and serve as Chairman of the Scientific Committee. The awardee has deep interest in interactive Teaching & Learning methodologies in under graduates and post graduate education. His keen interest is to guide and promote education on the principles of medical Education.

The Chairman & members of Ophthalmological Society of Pakistan Gold Medal Committee is pleased to award the Ophthalmological Society of Professor Raja Mumtaz Gold Medal for year 2016 to this distinguished Pakistani Ophthalmologist. His name is Dr. Jamshed Nasir from Lahore, Pakistan.